VOLUME XXII

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1912.

NUMBER 3

LOCAL BASE BALL CLUB

Soon to Change Management--To Be Re-organized, Etc.

No Game Here This Week--Next Game Will Be July 31st.

Several prominent gentlemen interested in base ball met Saturday and decided to organize a stock company and take charge of the Mt. Sterling franchise in the Blue Grass League. A new president and board of directors will be selected, a new manager secured and a number of other changes made. In the last few days the team has been greatly strengthened and is now playing winning ball, having won the last two out of three games. Saturday they defeated Lexington 6 to 2 and on Monday defeated Paris by the same score, both games being played on the visitors' grounds. Rutherford, Middleton and Sanford, the new men recently secured, are playing great ball.

Monday a deal was consummated whereby Mt. Sterling secures the services of umpire McBrayer to play third base. He is an excellent third sacker and good hitter, having played the first part of the season with Frankfort.

Mr. A. L. Laughlin is now in Cincinnati looking for players and a good man to manage the team. It is possible that Nick Altrock, formerly a star pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, will be secured to take charge of the team.

The new company is busy selling shares and several hundred dollars' worth of stock have already been subscribed.

The day the next game will be played here, Wednesday, July 31, will be designated as "Boosters' Day." Every loyal fan should not fail to secure a Boosters' Ticket.

Appointees to the State University.

The competitive examination for appointees to the State University will be held in the office of County Superintendent on Monday, July 29. This county is entitled to two appointees.

TO HAVE NEW HOME

This Office To Move To Old Presbyterian Church Property.

Structure to be Extended to the Street and Made Modern in Every Particular.

What is known as the old Presbyterian church property is being remodeled and a beautiful new two story addition being built which will extend to the pavement. The building is owned by Messrs. Chenault & O'Rear and when completed, which will be about Sept. 1, will be occupied by the Advocate Publishing Co.

The new addition will be one of the most modern in the city and will be built of brick and concrete. The old church building, which will be used as the mechanical department, will be well adapted to the use of a plant of this character, having splendid light and the advantage of having all the plant on one floor. The presses will be on a solid concrete foundation so that it will be possible for us to turn out the very highest class work known to the printing trade. We have recently purchased a number of new presses, and other labor saving equipment, which, when added to our already large plant, will make us have one of the most up-to-date printing plants in this section of the state.

Thou Shalt Not Steal.

To all voters in Montgomery county, regardless of past party affiliations:

Those who believe that the people should rule and not be mastered by the office-holding element now in control of both old political parties, who believe that the interests of our country and State may be best served by a new Progressive party. This call is made for a mass convention to be held in the Court House Saturday, July 27th, 1912, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing a county committee and appointing delegates to the District Convention, which meets in Ashland, Ky., on August 1st at 12 o'clock noon.

Provisional Chairman Progressive Party 9th Congressional District of Kentucky. 3-1t pd

No Money For Postal

Employees This Month

On account of Congress failing to pass the General Deficiency bill the Government storekeepers and gaugers throughout the country will not receive their pay for work done during the month of June for a time at least. A number of Government employees, residing in this and other Blue Grass cities, will be affected, and will have to wait for their salaries.

Winchester Court.

Only a fair crowd was in Winchester Monday for court day and trading was light. Only a few nules and horses were on the market and practically no trading was done in this line.

At Hamilton's Stockyards there were about 400 cattle on the market. The trading for a while was brisk. The prices were about 25 cents lower on the hundred than the past week.

Brick Street Bids Opened.

At a special meeting of the City Council held Monday night, bids were opened for the paving of Bank street and of Locust street from Bank to Sycamore. Two bids were received, one from G. H. Strother, of this city, and the other from the Central Construction Co., of Lexington. Mr. Strother's bid was $2.28 per square yard for Bank street and $2.36 for Locust street, Portsmouth brick to be used. For combined curb and gutter his bid was 62 cents per lineal foot; cast iron inlets on concrete foundations, each $20.00; catch basins, each $40.00; 15 inch sewer pipe, per lineal foot 90 cents; 10 inch sewer pipe connections, 50 cents per lineal foot. The bid of the Central Construction Co., was $2.30 per square yard for both streets and combined curb and gutter for 60 cents per lineal foot; cast iron inlets on concrete foundations, $25.00 each; catch basins, $40.00 each; 15 inch sewer pipe connections, $1.00 per lineal foot; 10 inch sewer pipe connections, 65 cents per lineal foot. Mr. Strother agreed to complete the work by Nov. 1, 1912 and the Central Construction Co., fixed their time for completing the work, Dec. 1, 1912. The bids were referred to the Street Paving Committee and action will be taken on same at a meeting of the Council, Wednesday, July 31.

ADVERTISING.

Is today the mightiest factor in the business world. It is an evolution of modern industrial competition. It is a business builder, with a potency that goes beyond human desire. It is something more than a "drummer" knocking at the door of the customer—something more than mere salesmanship-on-paper. It is a positive, creative force in business, it builds factories, skyscrapers and railroads. It makes two blades of grass grow in the business world where only one grew before. It multiplies human wants and intensifies human desires. It furnishes excuse to timorous and hesitating ones for possessing the things which under former conditions they could easily get along without.

The human mind is so constructed that it is appreciably affected by repetition—and, after all, advertisement is only repetition.—Truman A. DeWeese.

Storms Cause Great Damage.

The heavy rains in the past week have caused a great deal of damage to crops in this section, a large amount of corn and other crops in the bottoms being badly washed. Hinkston creek was higher than it has been in several years, many bridges being washed out and several families being forced to leave their houses. The turnpikes were badly washed, in some places large ditches being washed out across them. Turnpike Supervisor Wyatt is working day and night to get them back in condition, but it is thought it will take several months to repair the damage.

GREATEST FAIR YET

Big Crowd Attends the Opening of Montgomery County Fair.

The Weather Perfect, Crowds Immense, Rings Unexcelled.

The Montgomery County Fair of 1912 was auspiciously opened here Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The day was ideal, the crowd was unusually large for the first day. The show rings were well filled and all indications point to the greatest fair ever held in the Montgomery county Metropolis. Some of the finest show horses and fastest race horses in the world are here to compete for the prizes. The stalls at the fair grounds are all filled to overflowing, there being more horses here and of a better quality than were ever before exhibited in this city. Every day promises to be a banner day, and if you want to have a good time, hear good music, see your friends, view the finest thoroughbred stock in this country, and other attractions too numerous to mention, do not miss a single day. The exhibits at the floral hall are numerous and beautiful, the midway is the best ever secured by the fair company and the music being furnished by Grilla's band is being much enjoyed.

The following rings were shown before our going to press and resulted as follows:

Five-Gaited Pony—Sparks and Wilson 1st, Elizabeth Judy 2nd.
Best Harness Pony—Elizabeth Judy 1st, Roy L. Morris 2nd.
Runabout Horse—Mr. Churchman 1st, Collins & Redmond 2nd.
Plantation Walking Horse—S. S. Ralls 1st, Geo. Snyder 2nd.
Walk, Trot and Canter Mare or Gelding—Shropshire & Matlack 1st, Collins & Redmond 2nd.
Yearling Stallions—Lee Cruvins 1st, Bridges Bros. 2nd. This ring was an especially fine one. Many people would have reversed the tie, while many thought J. Walter Rice's colt should have had the tie.

Auto Wrecked.

Sunday morning Will Day who is connected with the Strother & Frazer Garage of this city while driving the new car of Mr. Henry Judy, accompanied by Mr. John Cline and little daughter, ran into the large ice wagon of the Mt. Sterling Water, Light and Ice Co., and the auto was nearly demolished. Mr. Cline said that the wagon was standing just around the corner on Willow street from High street, and that when the auto approached the horses whirled around suddenly and brought the tongue of the heavy wagon square against the front of the car, nearly tearing the bed clear off the running gear and throwing the occupants from the machine, but with the exception of a small cut on Mr. Cline's face they escaped unhurt.

Horse Stolen From in front of Court House.

Last Saturday, while standing in front of the court house, a light bay horse, 3 years old, 16 hands high and rather leggy, was stolen from his owner, Sheriff W. F. Crooks. A liberal reward will be given for any information leading to his recovery.

NEW DEPARTURE

Selling Medicines at Half Price Under Guarantee of Cure.

After two months of remarkable sales, W. S. Lloyd, the enterprising druggist, says that his plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success he has ever known.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue or the general tired feeling caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of W. S. Lloyd's new departure and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

New York's Drinking Water.

Within a year the city of New York will have completed the greatest of its aqueducts, that from the Catskill Mountains, which will furnish a pure supply of Mountain water to the five million people of the metropolis.

This great work will cost, it is estimated, $161,857,000. In its course this big ditch will flow under the Hudson River. The construction of the Ashokan reservoir in which the water is stored, has necessitated the removal of seven villages and two thousand people. All human reminders are being cleared from the wide valley that is to hold the water. Thirty-two cemeteries have been removed and 2,800 bodies reinterred. Sixty-four miles of highway will be inundated, and eleven miles of railroad track is being torn up.

It is an expensive work, but the engineers announce that the plant is capable of furnishing enough pure water for the city in perpetuity, and that is cheap at any cost. The cities of the west are mostly lucky in having this great problem settled by nature.

PLUMLEY'S BIG FISH STORY

Vermont Congressman Tells How He Recovered His Gold Watch and Double Eagle.

Fish stories are rife in May, and under the seductive influence of balmy spring new versions come to light of the same old stories we have heard since boyhood days. Congressman Plumley of Vermont, of portentously serious mien, asserted to a smiling group of colleagues that a couple of seasons ago he lost his watch and a $20 gold piece overboard while waiting by a placid pool for a bite. The next year, he declared under oath, he caught a fish in that self-same pool—a "gold fish," of course—and he found within the finny armor of that Vermont bass his watch, the $20 gold piece and 30 cents accrued interest.

Fish Commissioner Bowers insists that this is another result of his labors to propagate thrifty habits among gold fish. He says that the monetary question has been so much discussed in Washington that it has affected the spawn sent out through the country, and if these fish stories continue he will not be responsible for results. As the party broke up it was agreed that Congressman Plumley deserved the plum of the fish-story season.—Joe Chapple's News Letter.

SCOTLAND'S ADVANTAGE.

At Belfast a football match was played between Ireland and Scotland. One of the home supporters, who was getting excited, kept shouting out:

"Sit on 'em, Ireland!"

An old Scotchman in the crowd, unable to stand it any longer, cried out:

"Ye might be able to sit on the loek, mon, and mebbe on the rose, but I tell ye, mon, ye canna sit on the thistle."

MATTER OVER MIND.

Little Florence had a very bad toothache and was crying softly to herself. Her aunt, who was a believer in Christian Science, went over to the little girl and said:

"If you have any faith, dear, you would have no toothache."

Florence continued to sob, but between sobs she replied:

"Well, Aunt Grace, if you had my toothache, you wouldn't have any faith."—Judge.

PRUDENCE.

"Have you ever written your memoirs?" asked the enterprising publisher. "No," replied Senator Sorghum. "And I'm not going to write them. When a man interviews himself there is no chance for him to cover a mistake by saying he was misquoted."

TRUTH TRIUMPHS

Mt. Sterling Citizens Testify for Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Mt. Sterling citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney ills, use a tested kidney medicine.

A Mt. Sterling citizen tells of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Could you demand more convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. Laura Willoughby, 17 Strother street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "It is a pleasure to tell of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills as they always give entire satisfaction. I had pains through my back and kidneys, and at times I was dizzy and nervous. At night I was restless and mornings were weak and tired. A neighbor advised the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply from Duerson's drug store and their use gave me great relief. I now feel better in every way."

The Best Foot.

"He always puts the best foot forward" may be a compliment or it may not. It depends on the motive that propels the foot. If one habitually makes a fine appearance, for the purpose of securing unmerited favors, he is a fit object for a Moliere, but if he endeavors to appear at his best to make it pleasant for others and himself, he is to be commended for keeping the garbage can in the alley instead of on the front porch. If there is an imbecile in the family, candor does not compel the hostess to drag him out before the company and say, "This is our idiot." It is better, if he must be revealed at all, to refer to him more vaguely as: "Our poor son who was kicked by a calf."

PARKERS BIG SHOWS

INCLUDE NEW ATTRACTIONS AND SURPRISES FOR THE PUBLIC.

Company to Appear at the Blue Grass Fair is the Best and Most Complete That Have Visited Kentucky.

This year, as each year past, the Parker Shows have added new attractions and surprises for the public, founded and perfected only by great labor, patience and skill, with no spare of time and money to make their organization that which it now is, the most complete and best equipped carnival company touring the country today. The repertoire of new ideas and novelties advanced are far above the old stereotyped carnivals of a few years ago. Many new and startling features will be presented for the first time to the amusement loving public.

The new attractions, the new riding devices, the new factories are the most unique and far removed from all others. The Parker Shows have been made popular by their clean class and character of everything undertaken. Nothing of a questionable nature has ever been tolerated. The usual catch-penny affairs, games of chance, etc., have always been conspicuous by their absence. The Parker Shows are entitled to most of the credit due to elevating the carnival business to the high plane which it has reached. Their motto has ever been, "Cleanliness and Morality."

The company this season is the largest, best and most complete ever turned out of the Parker Factories. Consisting of 580 people, traveling on their own special train of thirty-five double length cars. Three powerful electric light plants that supply current to thousands of decorative lights that give the mid-way all the appearance of real fair land. Three sensational free attractions and a big thirty-five piece, all solo musicians, concert band that give concerts twice daily.

A Strong List of Attractions.

A list of the attractions to be presented by the Greater Parker Shows, which are contracted to furnish the amusement features for the Blue Grass Fair, may be of interest to the public, so these intending to visit will be in a position to know just what they will see. There are no less than eighteen separate and distinct attractions. In this long list there is not one that could offend the most sensitive.

To commence with the hand is one of the very best ever organized with any traveling company. Composed of thirty-five solo artists, under the direction of Victor Estile, a conductor of wide reputation, this hand is considered equal to any of the noted concert bands now touring the country, and the music loving people of Lexington and the surrounding country are promised a treat of rare excellence, of both classical and popular selections.

Miss Wilson, Soloist.

Assisting the hand is Miss Corine Wilson, the lady that "sings to beat the hand." Miss Wilson has a beautiful, clear, high soprano voice that she has no trouble in making heard above this large musical organization, and has been featured with Helen May Butler, Brooks and others of the leading musical and concert organizations.

Chefalo's act of looping the "Death-Trap Loop" is one of the most sensational, reckless and death-defying exhibitions ever conceived as an amusement feature. Chefalo, starting from the top of a hundred-foot runway, mounted on a bicycle, dashes down a steep and narrow pathway 150 feet in length, entering and riding a complete circle of the interior of a loop 26 feet in diameter. He enters the loop through an opening on one side. As he circles the interior of the loop and hangs suspended from the extreme top, head downward, with nothing supporting him but the tremendous momentum which he has acquired, his bicycle crosses a spring connected with the "death-trap" below, which closes the entrance and opens an exit on the opposite side, through which Chefalo concludes his exhibition by making a flying leap through mid-air and landing on a platform 30 feet away. From the time Chefalo starts his ride until he finishes is exactly five seconds. From the time his wheel crosses the spring that closes the "death-trap" until the rider enters onto the trap is just three-quarters of a second. An exhibition of nerve and daring that is conceded as being the limit of all human recklessness.

"The Great Bertini," world's greatest unicyclist, is another meritorious exhibition of nerve, science and skill. Bertini mounts to the top of a lofty spiral tower 90 feet in height, the runway of which is eighteen inches in width, on one wheel of a bicycle, and again descends amid a beautiful display of fire-works. An exhibition of daring that defies all laws of gravitation.

Repertoire is Varied.

The repertoire of shows and attractions are of such a varied description that no matter what your desire for amusement there is something that is sure to meet with your desire. Every one of which the company guarantees to be clean, moral and of refined nature.

A most novel and indeed most unusually meritorious attraction is the one offered by Miss Essie Fay and her equine wonder "Arabia," the horse with a "human brain." Arabia is a beautiful full-blooded Arabian, imported to this country by C. W. Parker especially for this season's tour of America. Miss Fay is a most attractive young woman and has succeeded in producing in Arabia that which, all who have witnessed the exhibition declare to be the greatest and most perfectly educated horse ever exhibited in America.

Another attraction that appeals strongly to the admirers of the more refined amusement is the production of "Pharaoh's Daughter," founded on the beautiful old Bible story, amplified by a hit of Egyptian mythology, which affords an opportunity of introducing the statue of Lota. During this part of the program, this statue which the audience has been thoroughly satisfied is made of marble, slowly but surely turns to a living, breathing woman in full view of the audience. Many new and mystifying numbers, and beautiful, startling electrical effects are presented that are admirably staged and gorgeously costumed. The Dance of the Shower of Silver," a transformation spectacular dance requiring a dress costing over $500, weighing 117 pounds and containing 260 yards of white silk. The Illusion of the "Phantom Maiden," where a lady is floated through the air on a lighted stage without any visible means of support, and in full sight of the audience, suddenly disappears as through magic.

The Wild Animal Circus is a most complete collection of Trained Wild Animals from all portions of the world. Lions, tigers, panthers, pumas, leopards, bears, etc. Not only are these animals on exhibition, but each and every one of them are trained to perform, and appear in the large steel bound arena which affords perfect safety to the spectators.

Chefalo's Royal Hippodrome. The same man that makes the ride through the death-trap loop is the owner of the above named attraction, and is presenting many daring and startling feats of nerve and skill, although not as sensational as the "death-trap" loop, are all big features. Combined with these are a combination of big circus novelties, introducing acrobats, tumblers, wire walkers, gymnasts, contortionists and aerial artists.

Rice Bros. Musical Comedy, well known on all the big vaudeville circuits, supported by a bevy of pretty girls that know how to sing and dance. The production is well staged and far removed and above the one time so-called "girl show," often carried with some of the carnival companies.

Then there are the Colored Minstrel, Crazy House, The Dragon Gorge, The Girl in the Moon, The Outlaws, The Museums of Wonder, where the strange and curious from the four corners of the earth are exhibited and lectured on.

The big $10,000 jumping horse Carry-Us-All, with a big concert pipe organ, both of which are manufactured at the big factories owned by C. W. Parker, founder of the Greater Parker Shows, which will appear in Lexington at the Blue Grass Fair August 7 to 12.

BIG FLORAL PARADE

The Blue Grass Fair will, on Monday, August 12th, put on one of the most unique and largest attractions ever attempted by any association, that of a decorated floral parade of automobiles, when it is expected there will be 100 or more cars beautifully decorated with artificial flowers. Large prizes in cash will be awarded, and, as the competition is open to all, this should prove one of the most beautiful pageants ever witnessed. Don't forget the date, Monday morning, August 12.

For information regarding designs, cost of same, and prizes offered, address the Secretary, John W. Bain, Lexington, Ky.

Three Moralities.

What is looked upon as moral is always determined largely by the general social system of the community. Some time ago we had a set of aristocratic virtues and faults. If a man was called a liar it was necessary for him either to stick somebody else with a sword or commit an assault upon him with his fists. He was supposed to have a flattering manner toward women, but was at perfect liberty to win their confidence and betray them. He had to be generous in giving away money, but was under no obligation to earn any and was perfectly free to grind it out of peasants. Aristocratic morals have been giving way to bourgeois morals, which are very much better, but by no means complete. Especially in public matters, but to a certain extent also in private affairs, the note of bourgeois ethics is security. They are founded much more on the fear that some harm may be done than on the determination that the fullness of life shall be increased. The great supplementary changes in morals in the future are going to come from the increased influence of the working majority. Their interests lead them to be more concerned with the effect their conduct has on the concrete welfare of the many than on any standards set up for the convenience of an aristocratic few or even for the sense of security of those in the middle way of life. Undoubtedly the ultimate outcome will be a combination, and the optimistic mind may hope that it will be a combination of everything that is valuable in the three sets of morals, and in the elimination of everything that is arbitrary and destructive of more than it conserves.

Habits.

It is a good plan to break into habits occasionally, to see that it can still be done. To follow even the best of habits too closely tends to ossify existence. It makes one stiff. It narrows his tastes. The retired farmer who still gets up before daylight every morning, so as to get an early start, waiting for bedtime, would be much better off if during the stress of life he had broken his habit occasionally and slept until nine o'clock. The city man who lets the street, the flat, the office grind become an unbearable habit, loses all his elasticity. Recently a brother and sister were found in an Eastern State who had lived on the same farm for sixty years, and during that time had not been ten miles from home. For thirty years the woman had not been to town, five miles away, and for fifteen years, although well and strong, she had not been so far from the house as the branch in their bottom field. Habits of life like this become prison chains. One must do some things the same way or nearly the same way to learn to do them well but once having acquired the skill of repetition, it is well to break away and do it some other way. It is better to make some blunders and get some knocks experimenting than to oscillate in a groove until freedom ends.

INOPPORTUNE.

He was arrested on the charge of robbing another of his watch and chain. It was claimed that he had thrown a bag over his victim's head, strangled and robbed him.

There was so little evidence, however, that the judge quickly said: "Discharged."

The prisoner stood still in the dock, amazed at being given his liberty so soon.

"You're discharged," repeated the judge. "You can go. You're free." Still no move from the prisoner, who stood staring at the judge.

"Don't you understand? You have been acquitted. Get out," shouted the judge.

"Well," stammered the man, "do I have to give him back his watch and chain?"

The Double Cross.

Fewer newspapers are accepting the advertising of promoters of wildcat mines and gold-brick industrial companies, although too many still cling to the idea that their advertising columns are merely bulletin boards on which any man can spread his offer when he has paid the price. There has come to us a letter from a victim of this theory: "I attribute my misfortune to the confidence I placed in this newspaper. I had been a reader of it for twenty-five years; why shouldn't I confide in it? I did not believe it would advertise swindlers, while, on the editorial page, it was condemning crookedness and swindling of every kind." Several years ago this man bought stock in the traction company which served this city, paying $82 a share for it.

The company got into financial trouble, and the newspaper led a persistent, bitter attack on its management. One day it had an editorial saying that the street railway company's shares were not worth the paper they were printed on. Trusting the paper's judgment, the man sold his stock at a big loss, and trusting the same paper's advertising pages, put his money into the stock of United Wireless. Now the promoters of the Wireless company are in jail, the property of the traction company is in good shape, and its stock, which is paying dividends, is selling for $88 a share. The victim has changed newspapers.—Collier's.

REPUBLICAN DISAFFECTION.

If anyone doubts that the Republican party is hopelessly divided in Kentucky, as in all other states of the Union, he should read the accounts of a few of the Roosevelt meetings. In Adair County several hundred followers of the Bull Moose recently met and adopted the following resolutions, which aptly express the sentiment everywhere:

"Resolved, that we condemn all parties responsible for the theft from the Republicans of Adair county of their right to vote and have their votes counted in county convention at Columbia on April 6, 1912.

Resolved, that we condemn the policy of the Taft administration for its disposition of federal offices as reward for acts of political dishonesty.

We condemn the successful attempt of W. O. Bradley and his servants to deprive Theodore Roosevelt, by systematic fraud, of the delegate vote of Kentucky.

We condemn the fraudulent action of the political bosses and the National Committee, which at Chicago unseated the Roosevelt delegates elected by the people; and condemn the fraudulent and pretended nomination of W. H. Taft, which was accomplished by fraud and theft. We contend that such so-called nomination is void, and deny that any honest Republican is under any obligations to support him.

That, having fresh in memory the prosperous condition of the country and the American people under the wise and honest administration of ex-President Roosevelt, and recognizing his superior ability and high character, we hail him as the greatest living American, the tried and true friend of the people. We point with pride to his administration, under which the common people in every walk of life prospered as at no other time in the nation's history."

Following our well known custom of acknowledging our errors, we want to admit our youthful enthusiasm got the better of us when we ventured to take the Sentinel-Democrat to task for asserting that the government building would not be finished according to contract. We want to withdraw all we said and now go on record as being satisfied if it is finished in time to receive the next Democratic postmaster.

If Attorney General Garnett is correct in his interpretation of the recently enacted individual drinking cup law, that it does not apply to public schools, then the law is a dead letter and might as well be thrown into the junk heap.

COD INDUSTRY IS GROWING

Newfoundland Has Wonderful Asset and Will Be Great Fish Depot of World.

The cod is probably the most profitable of all sea fish, though its habitat does not extend over as large an area as other species, says the Wide World. The cod is only found in northern waters, and will live and thrive only in certain temperatures. Some day, owing to the wonderful asset which Newfoundland possesses in her cod fishery, she is destined to be the great fish depot of the world. It is not alone on the great "banks," many miles off her coasts, that cod are found in countless millions, but around the whole island—on the "ledges" and "grounds" off the capes and promontories that jut into the Atlantic, as well as on the Labrador coast, for a stretch of 1,000 miles. In these regions you require no hatcheries to aid the wonderful fecundity of nature; indeed, it is doubtful if you require any laws or regulations to protect these fisheries unless it be in the shoal waters of the bay.

Notwithstanding that for 300 years the fisheries of these waters have been prosecuted by rival fishermen of two hemispheres, the largest catch of cod ever taken on the Newfoundland and Labrador coasts was that secured in 1909, the yield being estimated in weight at 1,800,000 quintals, or 201,000,000 pounds; to which may be added 200,000 quintals—the quantity locally consumed in Newfoundland during and after the fishing season. The value of the fish alone, without any regard to the by-products—oil, roes, skin, offal, etc.—is $10,000,000.

HOW FAST THE HORSE WENT

"Lickity Split" Said the Boy Witness, and the Judge and Jury Understood.

In the Superior civil court a little chap was giving testimony in a case where an express team is alleged to have knocked down and injured a boy acquaintance of the witness. The little chap on the witness stand was asked how fast the team was going when he first noticed it. He seemed a bit puzzled, and the attorney suggested a hearse and a fire engine as terms of comparison. The boy said it was not going as fast as a fire engine and faster than a hearse.

The attorney ventured again to have the witness state in his opinion just how fast the team was going.

"It was going lickity split," said the youngster. From the expression upon the faces of the judge and the members of the jury it was evident that they understood the answer of the witness thoroughly.—Boston Journal.

CRUEL REALISM.

John G. Johnson, the famous lawyer and no less famous art expert, was talking, at a dinner in Philadelphia, about some of Sargent's cruelly realistic portraits. "Sargent once painted a Philadelphia woman," Mr. Johnson said, "and when the work was finished, the lady's coachman called for it. As the coachman was studying the portrait, Sargent said to him: 'How do you like it?' The man answered thoughtfully: 'Well, sir, ye might have made it a little better-lookin', mebbe; but if ye had, ye'd have spoilt it.'"

HELPED HIM ALONG.

"How did he manage to escape from the penitentiary? I thought it was well nigh impossible."

"Well, he figured it out on scientific lines. Somebody smuggled him a pair of trunks, and after he got outside everybody thought he was running a Marathon."

DELIGHTFUL PROSPECT.

"Do you," said the counsel, "swear that you will tell the truth, the whole truth and—"

"Oh, how lovely!" the fair witness interrupted. "Shall I be allowed to talk all the afternoon if I want to?"—Stray Stories.

COURTING DANGER.

"Who is that fellow who just now called one of our noble policemen a gendarme?"

"Why, that's a traveled person from abroad."

"Well, he'd better be careful. One of our fattest cops may resent the imputation."

BRAZIL IS FULL OF GAME

Animals, Birds and Fish of Every Description Abound in Its Woods and Rivers.

"For the man who loves to hunt and fish Brazil is a paradise," continued Dr. Griffith. "I do not suppose there is a part of the world where game is more plentiful or that can be hunted under more satisfactory conditions than in the state of Minas Geraes, say a couple of hundred miles to the north of Rio Janeiro. The prairies and woods teem with animals and birds of every description. There are tigers and water hogs and wild hogs and funny little red deer about the size of a goat, and tall red wolves with long but very slender bodies. There are magnificent birds known as the periz and the codorna, which greatly resemble our quail, only a great deal bigger, with the same flavor and the same delicious white meat. Dogs are used in hunting them, just as we use them in quail shooting in this country.

"Then there are scores of other feathered creatures unlike any specimens we have here, and in the lakes and rivers myriads of wildfowl, including ducks the equal of our vaunted canvasbacks. There are wild pigeons in the forests and a big bird that is a fair counterfeit of our wild turkey.

"The native Brazilians are not very keen on hunting themselves, but now and then one can be found to make up a camping party, and so plentiful is the game, both on the prairies and in the mountains, that it is always easy to get permission of a landowner for shooting over his estate."—Baltimore American.

TOO SLOW TO LIVE.

Governor Dix, at a dinner in Albany, was congratulated on his veto of the milk bill. Of this bill, which would have permitted the lowering of the standard of milk purity, the governor said: "The bill would be a long step backward in the fight for pure milk, and he who can't see this must be as slow as Cornelius Husk of Quag. 'I always said old Corn Husk was slow,' said one Quag man to another. 'Why, what's been doin' now?' the other asked. 'Got himself run over by a hearse!'"

A SLIGHT DOUBT.

"Of course, you believe in the wisdom of the plain people."

"Yes," replied Farmer Cornosel; "although the way we talk about the trusts and the middleman does make me kind of suspect that us plain people can't brag about the way we hold our own in business transactions."

THOUGHT HE WAS FIXING PIPE.

"Consulted a physician this morning and he advised me to give up my pipe."

"Give up your pipe, eh? What did he charge you for that?"

"Ten dollars. I guess he thought for the moment he was a plumber."

INDUCEMENT.

"Did dat man offer any inducements to git you to buy dat mule?"

"Yass, indeed," replied Mr. Erasmus Pinkley. "He give me his membership in a 'society' dat pervides a handsome funeral for anybody dat belongs to it."

SIGNIFICANT.

"How long have they been married?"

"I don't know exactly, but when they go fishing she baits her own hook."

EACH MAN HIS LIFE ENGINE.

As the engine is the iron expression of the engineer's purpose, and the smoking, steaming embodiment of the engineer's soul, so character is both the man and his instrument which he uses to draw along his train of influence through the world. Out of a great deal of material, lying loose about him, every man makes his life engine, and it generally represents him and embodies him and embodies his ideas of life.—Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus.

DID HE GET AN ANSWER?

A writer in the Electrical Review thinks that electrical companies should attach to business letters a "sticker" defining electrical terms, such as watt, ampere, volt, kilowatt load, factor, etc. This brings to mind a paragraph in another journal about a telephone subscriber who called up "Information" to ask how many inches there are in a meter. To information's inquiry, "Haven't you got a dictionary that you could consult?" came the answer, "Yes, but it's less trouble to ask you."

"I'm in a hurry. What's the difference?"

TO TAKE PLACE OF COTTON

Common Nettle Found to Have Valuable Fibers That Make Lustrous White Yarn.

The search for a cotton substitute has been going in Europe for a long time, and many experiments have been made with the common nettle, which has been a promising plant on account of the strength of its fiber and its ready growth wild under the most discouraging conditions, with a large yield per acre.

The great difficulty has been in separating the fiber from the woody stem. In a method of treatment that has been worked out in the last two or three years the dried nettle stems are boiled about an hour in dilute soda lye, and the loosened fibers are then separated in a machine with revolving brushes.

The material is then subjected to a number of alternate boilings in dilute lye and thorough washings, both under high pressure.

The product is a mass of yellowish fibers free from gum, that can be bleached, combed and spun into lustrous white yarn. This is claimed to have the smoothness and softness of flax, with a strength even greater than that of hemp.

The yarn has been made into brilliant damask, and can be used—alone or with other threads—for upholstery, ribbons and a variety of fabrics.—Chicago Tribune.

FOUND ANCIENT RELIC.

While one of the gardeners in Broomhall gardens was digging a trench recently, says the London Globe, he came upon an ancient sand bed. On further excavations being made for the purpose of securing sand for gardening purposes, a huge bone was discovered. The bone is believed to be one of the vertebrae of a whale or other great sea monster. If that be so, the waters of the Firth of Forth must have extended at least a quarter of a mile farther inland at some very remote period. The osseous find was deposited in Lord Elgin's museum at Broomhall.

RIDING THE SEVILLE BELLS

Primitive and Daring Way in Which Those of the Giralda Are Rung.

In ordinary circumstances bell ringing is a peaceful occupation to which white-haired, venerable men seem ideally suited. But the men who ring the bells in the famous Giralda of Seville must be young men of unusual agility and steadiness of nerve.

When the city is to make merry on feast days the ringers climb to the belfry, and then, by the aid of a rope and steps cut in the wall of the tower, each mounts to the bell he is to ring and stands astride its brazen shoulders. Then he presses the bell with his feet, holding on to the cross-piece to which it is swung.

Gradually the great bell sways to the movement of the man astride it until it acquires a momentum which swings the hammer, first gently, and then with increasing force, as the sweep of the bell widens, until the air is trembling from the blows that strike the massive sides.

The riders bend and rise and fall with the action of the bells, now appearing to the observer from below to be in a horizontal position as the bell reaches the limits of its swing, and again riding gracefully to an upright position as the monster sways backward with another thundering note.

The most extraordinary part of the daring performance is the sight of the bell-ringer calmly swaying the bell while it hangs far out of the belfry over the city, for the outward swing sends the counterpoise with the ringer into space beyond the arch.—Youth's Companion.

SIMPLE WEDDING IN FAVOR

Quieter Ceremonies and Gatherings Are Much More Common Than Has Been the Rule.

The quiet wedding seems to be far more usual now. No longer is it considered an alarming symptom of eccentricity to be married without bridesmaids, best man, a churchful of spectators, red carpet, cabs, buttonholed cabmen flourishing be-ribboned whips, old jokes in the vestry weakened with tears, rice, volley of flowers, old boots and shoes and slippers, a parade of presents, breakfast, frock coat, orange blossom, satin, and so on.

Man has always quailed before such a catalogue, but woman appears to have revelled in it, but the general fashion for simplicity involves the simple wedding. The red carpet is following the seven-course dinner and bridesmaids are joining the other guests of the past.

There are still, of course, many elaborate weddings, but they are not by any means so usual as they used to be—particularly among the middle classes. Even at the most "fashionable" churches the number of quiet weddings increases steadily. The typical wedding of the day is a little gathering of relatives.

GREAT SOUTHERN PROJECTS.

Projects to harness the streams of the south exceed in magnitude any similar enterprises in the world. New companies have been formed, with capital aggregating $225,000,000 whose plans look to the ultimate development of over 1,500,000 horsepower. Financial interests in London, New York and Pittsburgh control most of the sites for the development of water power. With southern streams turning the wheels of mills, running trains, and lighting cities, the south may in time wrest the industrial supremacy of the country from the east.

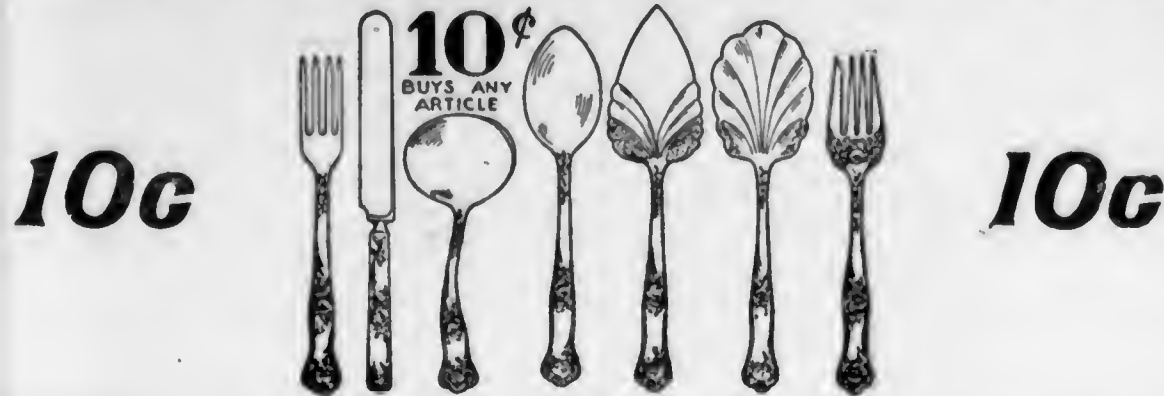

THE ORIENTAL DANCER.

Charles Frohman, at a dinner at the Metropolitan club in New York, condemned a certain outrageously immodest Oriental dancer. "She must have a nasty mind," Mr. Frohman said, "to dance like that." "Oh, don't be too hard on her," said a playwright. "She may not understand, you know. Consider how young she is." "I deny," said Mr. Frohman, "that she's as young as you imply; but I'm bound to admit that, even though not young, she's certainly a stripling."

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The dance given at Trimble's Hall, Tuesday evening by Mr. J. R. Magowan in honor of Miss Mary Ray Trimble, was attended by a large crowd. The hall was beautifully decorated by Mr. Clarence Leach, of Lexington, who is a past master in his profession. The most entrancing music was furnished by Weber's orchestra of ten pieces of Cincinnati, O. At intermission a bountiful plate lunch, consisting of old ham, cicoquets, sandwiches, chicken salad, potato chips, beaten biscuits and coffee, followed by ices and cakes was served. Mr. Magowan's guests spent a most pleasant evening, and this dance will be remembered for years as one of the swellest social functions ever given in our city.

SIMPLICITY.

Simplicity is the elimination of the non-essential in all things. It reduces life to its minimum of real needs; raises it to its maximum of powers. Simplicity means the survival—not of the fittest, but of the best. In morals it kills the weeds of vice and weakness so that the flowers of virtue and strength may have room to grow. Simplicity cuts off waste and intensifies concentration. It converts flickering torches into searchlights.—From "Self-Control," by William George Jordan.

A Test of Merit

Before purchasing Life Insurance a man should carefully scrutinize every proposition submitted to him.

"But I lack the time, and am not familiar enough with the technicalities of Insurance Contracts to make an intelligent selection," says the prospective buyer.

The "Standard Measuring Rod" used by the State Mutual Life Assurance Company of Worcester, Massachusetts, is a real test of merit.

It is easily applied, it is simple, and will therefore enable you to make an intelligent selection quickly. It is a real time saver. You are welcome to its use.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the New Drug.

An eminent skin specialist recently discovered a new drug, othine—double strength, which is so uniformly successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Wm. S. Lloyd under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first night's use will show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely. It is absolutely harmless, and cannot injure the most tender skin.

Be sure to ask Wm. S. Lloyd for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee.

Work Says Neither

Legally Nominated.

Senator Works, of California, Progressive Republican, in a statement given out recently, declared that the promoters of the new party would be guilty of dishonorable dealings if they should attempt to restrain control of the Republican machinery in States where the progressive faction controls the Republican party.

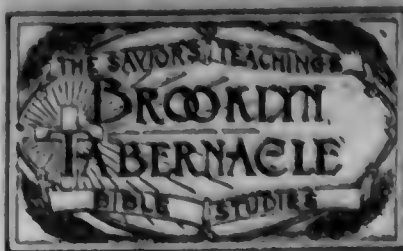

Works declares that neither Taft nor Roosevelt were legally nominated, that the Republican party had no legal nominee and that the voters are free to vote for whom they choose. He said that this was not the time to form a new party. "That," he said, "must come later."

Works said the alternative for the Republicans was to rebuke corrupt politics; that if they did not believe Taft was honestly elected to refrain from voting for him, to vote for the Democratic candidate, or vote for Roosevelt or some one else as an independent candidate.

SIMPLE EXPLANATIONS.

There are two things about San Juan which are to be found in almost every part of Spanish America where there are mountains or highlands. One is the statue of Columbus. The other is the castle of El Morro. Most people of the United States are more familiar with Morro castle in Havana. When they hear there is another Morro at Santiago in Cuba, and then another in Porto Rico they wonder what it means. The explanation is quite simple. These castles or citadels are located on projecting necks of high land which dominate the harbor entrances. El Morro in Spanish simply means "the snout."—Christian Herald.

GOD'S WHEAT FIELD.
Matthew xiii, 24-30, 36-43—July 28.
"Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into My garner."—Verse 30.

OUR International Sunday School Lessons are specially helpful this year. We are glad that the selection contains so many lessons on the Kingdom. This topic has not had sufficient consideration, considering its prominence in the Bible. Today's study is another of the Kingdom parables. It is the embryo Kingdom that is pictured; it relates to this Gospel Age, and the work of selecting the Church.

"The Field is the World."

This parable also shows us the very commencement of the Lord's call for His Bride from amongst all nations. St. Paul declares to the Jews, "It was necessary that the Gospel should be preached first unto you, but seeing ye reject it, . . . we turn to the Gentiles." (Acts xiii, 46.) The entire world constituted the "field" for the sowing of the "good seed," which is strictly defined, "the Gospel of the Kingdom."

Jesus and the Apostles sowed this "good seed," and all His true followers since have been authorized to continue the work in His name. But the Adversary, Satan, as pointed out here in the parable, brought in a different kind of "seed," and sowed this over the "wheat field." The result is that today the "tares" are so plentiful that they think they are the "wheat," and the world in general so considers them.

The "wheat" class are considered "a peculiar people." Of their good fruits the Apostle mentions meekness and humility, and these tend to bow their heads, while the "tares" stand proudly up in the display of their "form of godliness."

The Lord allowed the matter to go on, fully assured that He would have in the end the crop which He desired, and very content to allow a great lesson to be taught by the presence of the "tares" and the ultimate treatment accorded the "wheat."

The Lord could have hindered the Adversary from bringing in the false doctrine, or He could have separated centuries ago between the wheat and tare classes, but this was not according to His intention. He purposed to "let both grow together until the Harvest." In the Common Version the words, "The Harvest is the end of the world," have been seriously misunderstood. It does not mean the end of time, nor the end of the earth—its destruction—nor the end of Divine favor. It merely means the end of the present Age.

"In the Time of the Harvest."

This expression signifies that the Harvest of this Age will not be an instantaneous work, but a gradual one, requiring time. There is good reason for believing that the Harvest of this Age is a period of forty years, as the Harvest of the Jewish Age was of that length. In this time of the Harvest two things will be accomplished: (1) The "tares" will be gathered into "bundles," ready for the "burning"—destruction. (2) The "wheat" at the same time, will be gathered into the "garner"—the heavenly Kingdom.

"They shall gather out of His Kingdom all things which offend, and them which do iniquity; . . . there shall be walling and gnashing of teeth." There will be two classes amongst the "tares"; one class, "doers of iniquity" (inequity, unrighteousness), the other class, those that have caused others to stumble. Doubtless this will include many teachers and preachers, and many doers of wonderful works.

But we must not forget that we are considering a parable, and that the "tares" are symbolical, and likewise the "burning" and the "fire." The interpretation is that, in the end of this Age, the Harvest time, there will be a great "time of trouble" for all nations, society, governments, financial institutions, etc.

The "wheat" class will be saved from that "time of trouble" by the resurrection change. But the "tares" will not be saved from it; they will be cast into the trouble and have their portion with the hypocrites.

That trouble will not last forever. Many Scriptures seem to show that it will be terrific, but of very short duration. It will be on the earth, and not in some far-off place. When the "fire" of that great day of anarchy and trouble shall cease to "burn," there will be no more "tares," there will be no more people having mere forms of godliness and pretensions for the Kingdom, begotten of error.

All humanity will be humbled and anxious for Messiah's Kingdom, which will then be established. It will be "the desire of all nations." (Haggai ii, 7.) Those formerly "tares," as well as the remainder of the groaning creation, will welcome it and its blessings. In that Kingdom the glorified "wheat" class "shall shine forth as the sun" for the blessing of all the families of the earth.—Matt. xiii, 43; Galatians iii, 29.

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

Primitive Man.

A novelist sometimes likes to cut the knot he has tied in his own plot by having the primitive man suddenly rise up in the hero and make him snatch the resisting maid into a state of blissful, although groveling, servitude. It seems to us unfair—and dangerous to him—to "sick" a primitive man on a modern woman. It is also out of character to attack a chapter of modern literary bliss to a primitive conquest. There is evidence that the primitive man did snatch and club his woman to his heart's content, but it is not written by any woman novelist of that day that she lived happy ever afterward. No doubt she took it with docility, for big muscle was then boss, but there is nothing in human nature to warrant the assumption that woman ever enjoyed being bull-dozed—at least for any length of time. Just as the doctrine that the weaker races were made for slavery and are happier in it, has been exploded, so the notion that woman, because weaker physically than man, enjoyed her abject servitude, is vanishing before enlightened facing of human nature. If there is anything in woman's nature that makes her blissful at being consistently clubbed into submission, it is not apparent to the observation of most married men.

It Pays To Advertise.

It is not such a long cry since a big poster announced on all the boardings of London, the dramatization of "The Woman in White" a striking design, in black and white as becomed it, sober in line and of splendid effectiveness, it brought fame to its young designer, Bernard Partridge.

That was in the days when garishness was the note; the screaming note, of all outside display publicity; when billboards were an offense for sheer vulgarity; when the notion that art had its place in commercial propaganda had not perished. Very shortly thereafter, at the first International exposition held in Paris after "The Terrible Year," a well known soap man purchased for advertising purposes, the terra-cotta group, "A Dirty Boy," more widely recognized today than even the Appollo Relvidere or the Miléan Venus. Thereafter his commissions to Millais and other painters in vogue procured for his wares an artistic presentation which long remained unchallenged.

Nothing, however, is more generally recognized today than that no pains or skill is wanted that can be lavished on the artistic placing before the public of any article intended for sale, be its character what it may; this and a care to keep within the bounds of truth are the two prime prerequisites of successful publicity, and no idea could be cruder or more fundamentally erroneous than that which is conveyed by the cant phrase "to lie like an advertisement." Advertisements not only do not lie, but, obviously, cannot lie and bring results; their pulling power is in direct ratio to their veracity. What they need is veracity and perspicacity; a decent reticence has a real value; so much they may say and no more; a little should be left to the imagination, and there dare not be either "suggestion falsi" or "suppression veri." We speak, of course, of the ideal, much more frequently met, nevertheless, than many imagine.

Endless are the tricks of the trade; countless the ingenuities. Even the window dresser, an artist who makes window shopping a delight and an instruction, does not neglect to pique our curiosity; he does not reveal quite everything; he leaves us asking for more. Not otherwise, perhaps, could we be tempted back of those fascinating panes. There may be truth in the proverb that in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird, but it does not apply to the shopping male or female.—Louisville Times.

"Animated Newspaper" of French Moving Picture Shows Are Popular With the Patrons.

The "animated newspaper" issued by a French firm for display in moving picture establishments is said to be the most costly newspaper issued, from the standpoint of the subscriber, as one of these reels costs many dollars. These films are very popular with a certain class of patrons of the "movies." They are edited in much the same manner as the typical newspaper. A corps of operators is kept in constant touch with many sources of news. As soon as a promising tip reaches him, the editor sends one, two or as many men as he thinks necessary for the purpose. Frequently the three films are patched together to make one complete reel. Correspondents are maintained at different points, and these are assigned by telegraph to go to certain points where their services may be needed. Mine explosions and railroad accidents are regarded as particularly attractive features, and men are sent at once to these whenever they are reasonably accessible. Pictures of the debris and the work of removal are always objects of interest to patrons of the "movies."

NO DANGER IN MOUTHPIECES

Investigation Shows Communication of Tuberculosis by Use of Telephones is Unlikely.

An investigation made in England to determine the possibility of the communication of tuberculosis through the use of telephones seems to show that such infection is practically impossible. The experiments were ordered by the postmaster general, who appointed Dr. H. Spitta of St. George's hospital, London, and bacteriologist to the king, to make the experiments.

A number of telephones, which had been in use in busy London offices for various periods, and had received no cleansing treatment other than that normally given such phones, were first tested. Washings were prepared from the mouthpieces and tests were made by the inoculation of guinea-pigs to ascertain whether tubercle bacilli were present. The mouthpieces were shown to be free from these bacilli.—Popular Mechanics.

TOO MUCH FOR THEM.

A northern man made a visit to the plantation of a southern colonel and was almost devoured the first night by mosquitoes. The next morning the northern man asked the colored butler about the mosquito plague. "Don't the mosquitoes bother the colonel?" he asked.

"Not much, sah," the butler replied. "The fust part of the night the colonel am too drunk to feel mosquitoes, and the last part of the night they is too drunk to bother him."

STOOPS.

(By B. M. Gooden.)

Farmers are getting badly delayed with their work.

The continued wet weather has seriously interfered with hay harvest and wheat threshing.

The new bridge over Hinkston has been completed, which is a great improvement.

Miss Mollie Thompson will return this week from Bourbon county where she has been visiting relatives.

Indications are that a very light vote will be polled at the coming primary election.

Heavy rains have about ruined the fine oat crop.

The condition of James Crockett is greatly improved.

Dogs killed about 20 head of sheep belonging to Bigstaff & Cockrell last week.

Willie Frank Turner and wife, of Indianapolis, are visiting relatives in this county.

Mrs. Bert Sanders, Sherman and Miss Edna Hamilton, who are at Swango Springs, are reported to be doing fine.

Mrs. Laura Byrd and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Owingsville, visited relatives and attended services at Springfield Sunday.

We guess everybody will take in the fair this week.

A great crowd attended the ordination and installation of Rev. W. A. Hopkins at Springfield Sunday. Rev. I. C. Hunt, of Lexington, acted as Moderator, Rev. J. S. Hagins, of Oxford, Ky., delivered the charge to the pastor, and Prof. C. A. Leonard, of Jackson, delivered the charge to the people. At the noon hour an elegant dinner was served, being plenty for everybody. In the afternoon Rev. Hibshman, of Mt. Sterling, preached a powerful sermon, which resulted in two additions to the church.

KIDSVILLE.

(By Miss Alta Vivion.)

Several from this place attended court at Winchester Monday.

Bro. Walker filled his regular appointment at the Kiddville church Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Nan Owen, of Versailles, and daughter, Mrs. John Edgar, of Midway, have returned home after a delightful visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Frances Vivion.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Webb and son, of Winchester, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thomas.

Miss Laura Pace entertained a number of her friends Sunday afternoon in honor of her visitors, Mr. Jim Wilson and sister, Miss Ethel, and Miss Nancy Gemper, of Spencer. Everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

Mrs. Martha Pace has returned home after a few weeks stay at Winchester under the treatment of an eye specialist.

Ernest Howard is quite ill with typhoid fever.

Messrs. Morgan Fenney and Vernon Conlie spent from Saturday till Monday with friends at Rosslyn.

Mr. Charles Wood and son, John, of Log Lick, visited relatives at this place recently.

PLUMLICK.

(By James Kendall.)

Born to the wife of James Ishmael and wife, a ten-pound girl. Wife and baby doing well and the neighbors think Jim will pull through.

Ed Ritchie, of Wilmore, is organist for the big barn meeting now going on at this place.

The oat crop is extra good, but may get damaged to some extent.

The tobacco crop looks very spotted for the time of year.

James Kendall sold a bunch of yearling cattle to Ray Burris at 5c.

The big barn meeting, conducted by Elders Roberts, Reynolds, Ritchie and others at this place, is going to be a great revival, and will continue for several weeks. There will be three services next Sunday and everybody is invited to come with full baskets and listen to the able and interesting sermons.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; none cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness cured by our Catarrh Remedy, sent by mail. Name and address of patient, and send to doctors, free.

THRIFT IN WISE SPENDING

American Housewife Might Learn Economics of French and German.

There is thrift in wise spending, as there is in wise saving. Under pressure of hard times, the heads of the household often have to sit down and consider where to retrench. We are lavish in this country by habit, and no doubt we shall always continue to be so. The small economies of the French and German housewife are seldom practiced by an American housekeeper, unless she has had the good fortune to be trained by an unusually sensible mother. When people seriously take up the matter of income and outgo, they ought to regard that which is of permanent value as worth more than that which is necessarily transient. For example, it is of minor importance whether an old overcoat or a last year's suit is made to do duty for another person. Neither boy nor girl is all the worse for self-denial so far as the fashion of clothing is in concern. Most of us think too much about what the neighbors say. In the effort to keep up with other people we use up time and strength to no advantage. What we spend on good literature for the home, on the bright and breezy magazine that week by week and month by month adds to the family stock of ideas and helps in the education of the children, is a good investment.—Christian Herald.

AVIATOR'S PROPHECY.

A. V. Roe, one of the best-known aviators in England, makes the startling prophecy in the London Mirror that the hydroplane of the future will carry 1,000 passengers and revolutionize ocean travel. He says the speed obtainable will be enormous, exceeding 150 miles an hour, and, as the hydroplane will soon be as safe as any human invention can be, it will do away with seasickness. There is little doubt that ocean travelers would choose it in preference to a steamship. If Roe's startling prophecy is realized passengers from New York will be in London twenty-four hours after their start.

HOW THE NATIONS TAKE TEA

In Some Countries the Serving of the Pleasant Drink is Much of a Ceremony.

In England, France and Germany tea is made in much the same pleasant way, but in other countries the method of enjoying the cup which cheers is a more picturesque ceremony.

In China, for example, a large, artistic cup is set in a brass or silver holder, and in this cup the tea is placed and covered with boiling water. A little saucer which just fits it is placed inside the cup to keep in the steam and flavor of the tea. When it is drawn it is poured from the big cup into dainty little ones no bigger than an eggshell. The method followed in Japan is almost similar.

Tea making in Russia is a simple process involving merely the use of a samovar and a slice of lemon or of lime.

In Java tea is served in broad, flat cups and flavored with Batavia arrack, and in Formosa it is steeped with tea flowers and one or two orange flowers.

For their tea drinking the Uruguayans employ silver tubes, each of which has at the end a ball-like strainer, known as a bomba or bombilla.

In Martinique an aromatic tea is used, and a peculiar liquor made by the monks and by the old French housewives is added.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

OPPORTUNITIES.

A young man has always had to help make his opportunities, and he must do that today as ever. But young men fail more nowadays than they used to because they expect to reap almost as soon as they sow. That is the very great trouble with the young men of the present. They expect opportunities to come to them without application or proper shaping of things so that opportunities will drift their way. You have to keep your eyes open and catch hold of things; they'll not catch hold of you as a rule.—James J. Hill.

MAKING THE CLOTHES LAST

Suits and Shoes Need Attention and Rest and Will Profit Much Therefrom.

Clothes need rest as well as people. When I come home from my work daily I take off my business suit, brush and cleanse it and hang it away carefully on its proper hanger. My street shoes next receive attention. Afterward I put on a comfortable house gown and slippers. Both my clothes and I profit by the rest and change. On my weekly holidays I mend and press my clothes and do the necessary refurbishing.

I always follow three cast-iron rules concerning clothes:

Never throw away anything that can be made over.

Never lounge in good clothes. Plan the entire outfit carefully before buying any part of it.

By buying late in the season I often get serviceable bargains.—F. K., in Harper's Bazar.

ADDITIONS TO BRITISH NAVY.

During the year 1911 forty warships were launched in the British navy. These include eight super-dreadnoughts, carrying 13.5 guns; two protected cruisers, two unarmored cruisers, twenty-three torpedo boat destroyers and five submarines. These ships aggregated 221,000 tons and will cost when completed over $86,000,000.

CANT "LAND" HIS STUFF.

"The prima donna has great faith in her press agent." "That doesn't help her any." "Why not?" "Because no city editor has any faith in her press agent."

BELGIANS FLOCK TO THE CITIES.

The population of Belgium increased 10.9 per cent. in the years, 1900-1910, and showed the same drift from country to city observable in other nations. More than one-fifth of the population is now concentrated in the four towns of Brussels, Antwerp, Ghent and Liege.
